Don't Miss This One!

This class teaches you how to create your own original ideas using several pieces of reference. With 52 years of teaching experience behind him, Mr. Ewart offers the student a chance to produce a dramatic painting that has good design qualities that will offer the viewer works of art, that are unique and very pleasing to the eye. The class is fun, informative, and designed especially for those that just want to construct a painting that is some what better then the normal every day run-of-the mill paintings that we so often see in Galleries.
