Susan Bourdet

"Inspiration from Nature"

A 5-Day Watercolor Workshop - All Skill Levels

February 28 - March 4, 2011, 9am-4pm

Susan is well-known for combining highly detailed foregrounds with soft, impressionistic backgrounds to create realistic and dramatic nature paintings. She will teach you how to organize your reference material and ideas into breathtaking compositions. You are encouraged to bring your own reference material; however, Susan will have some available if needed.

Her structured and organized method of teaching will help build your confidence and understanding of the medium through step-by-step exercises and lots of individual attention. With daily demos, handouts and projects, she will teach you the principles of creating a strong composition and the techniques she uses to complete a fabulous painting. She will also share the techniques of her amazing wet-on-wet backgrounds. You will discover the magic of textures and the delights of delicate detail.

Cost of Workshop
