Larry Johnson

"Tips, Tools and Techniques of Acrylic"

A 4-Day Workshop - All Skill Levels

November 9-12, 2009 9am-4pm

"Rural Roads" 12"x 9" Acrylic

"Prairie Gold" 18"x 16" Acrylic

"Summer Run" 20"x 16" Acrylic

Larry Johnson was born and raised in the small Southeastern Oregon town of Lakeview. His father, a logger, taught him about the moods of the four seasons. His mother encouraged him by taping his early art on the walls of their home.

After five years of architectural training at the University of Oregon, Larry went on to the Art Center College of Design in Los Angeles to study architectural and industrial illustration. He went on to work as an architectural illustrator and graphic designer for many years. From 1964 to 1983 he was recognized as one of the nation's top wildlife artists. He has been featured in magazines such as Ducks Unlimited, Western Outdoors, and the Northwest Sportsman and has won many awards.

In this workshop you will learn how to paint trees, rocks, and skies, three different ways. Larry will talk about composition, focal points, and values as well as color washes. He will teach you brush handling techniques and how to break complicated scenes into simple shapes which are easier to paint. Students in this fun-filled workshop will paint along with Larry's step-by-step, easy-to-follow acrylic painting demonstrations.
