Gerald Brommer

"Watercolor and Collage Workshop"

A 5-Day Workshop - All Skill Levels

September 14-18, 2009, 9am-4pm

Gerald F. Brommer is a renowned artist, author, educator, juror and scholar. He is the acknowledged master of watercolor and collage painting methods which he originated and has taught for many years. "Jerry" is both author and editor of over 35 art books, many of which are used as texts in art schools and colleges. Jerry has also created 30 instructional posters and twelve "How To" video tapes, including "Watercolor in Action-Responding to Nature" and "Exploring Watercolor - from Location to Studio". His biography is included in Who's Who in American Art, Who's Who in the West, Contemporary Authors, and the International Who's Who of Contemporary Achievement.

This workshop will focus on combining watercolor and collage to develop textural surfaces for all kinds of subject matter, emphasizing self-expression. Jerry will also teach you creative ways to repair old paintings with the use of collage.
