Bookbinding Basics: Accordions, Pamphlets, and Asian bindings

Sunday, May 31, 2009 - 10:00 am to 4:00 pm - 5 hours
$27.50 Members; $30.00 Non Members +$10 Materials fee

Learn three fun and useful basic bookbinding styles in our Sunday intensive workshop. You will make three books, lots of friends and learn how to put a really neat spin on your art! Starting with the accordion or concertina binding, one of the oldest non-scroll bindings, we will learn all about paper and it's relation to books, and how to use it correctly to make beautiful art projects. From there we will progress to simple 3 and 5 hole pamphlet bindings. Learn how pages can be stitched to make simple, small books; or combined with accordions for more elaborate projects. Finally we will learn the ancient Asian art of side-sewn bindings, also known as stab-binding. Learn how to take single sheets of paper and sew them together with simple, easy to learn and memorable stitching patterns!

No experience is necessary for any part of this fun class!

Class Material Fees for all classes include paper for text, cardboard for covers; glue, needles and thread for sewing. Students should bring xacto knives, metal or metal-edged rulers, bone-folders and plastic triangles. John has some to loan if needed. You are encouraged to print all sorts of ephemera to include in your projects!
