Bookbinding Basics: Double Coptic Binding

Sunday, April 11, 2010

10:00 am to 4:00 pm - 5 hours

$27.50 Members; $30.00 Non Members

+$10 Materials fee

Coptic Stitching – Scrolls and accordion folds are great for chapter-size books, but what happens when you have to bind something as big as a Bible? Coptic Christian Monks working in Egypt in the first centuries after Christ devised a way to hold all of this written material together so the reader could easily handle it for reading. Book Artists use it today because the exposed stitching on the spine offers wonderful creative possibilities, including the use of multiple-colored threads. See single and double-needle stitching demonstrated. Make one for yourself.

No experience is necessary for any part of this fun class!

Class Material Fees for all classes include paper for text, cardboard for covers; glue, needles and thread for sewing. Students should bring xacto knives, metal or metal-edged rulers, bone-folders and plastic triangles. John has some to loan if needed. You are encouraged to print all sorts of ephemera to include in your projects!
