John will teach a three-hour class for artists ready to create richly textured paper in the class: Paper Inclusions. We are going to take existing paper and play with modifying / adding to it with a rich array of natural fibers, as opposed to creating our paper from scratch. Students enrolled in this paper class will have the opportunity in John’s future book binding classes to create uniquely styled books using their own, richly-enhanced papers.

Class Material Fees John will provide the backing paper, tissue, and sizing for the foundation of your custom designed paper. He will also bring an assortment of decorative fibers to embellish and design your paper with and the tools you will need for the project.
