

The Emerald Art Center is proud to present...

Ned Mueller

"Making a Painting Work"

A 3-Day Workshop - All Skill Levels

April 30 - May 2, 2010, 9am-4pm

Ned Mueller is one of the nation's foremost plein air painters and a master of figures, portraits and landscapes. He will be in Springfield to jury EAC's Annual National Juried Exhibition which will be on display during May, 2010.

Ned will teach us how to see things less literally and in more of an "abstract" way. In other words, not to see actual mountains, trees, grass, water, etc., but to see them as interesting and beautiful arrangements of shapes and colors...to see them more as an artist. This will open up more possibilities for things to paint and will help us find our own artistic voice.

This workshop will be indoors at the Art Center. Students will work from photos and can do landscapes, figures or portraits. Ned will bring a large and great collection of photos to use, or students can bring their own. Ned will do class demonstrations and will work with each individual on their own personal needs. Group critique sessions will also be included.
