Geoffrey McCormack

"Cliché to Cachet"

4-Day Watercolor Workshop
 – All Skill Levels –
March 5-8, 2012
9am-4pm

The goal of this fun, lively workshop is to begin the search for your signature style. The focus will be on developing a unique point of view, dynamic composition, rich textures, lighting and working in series.

We'll explore studio practices and techniques that can be used to create new, exciting paintings. A variety of demonstrations and discussions will include: point of view, masking & saving whites, salt & other textures, glazing & building a background, photos as reference not subject, understanding light & shadows, and studio set up.

Students will combine these new techniques and concepts with their personal reference materials and choice of water media in an abstract or representational painting. There will be individual assistance and critiques, as well as group critiques.

Register Early for a Special Discounted Price!

Space is limited so register early to secure your place in this workshop!
