“Farm Animals in Oils”

In this workshop we will look for the characteristics that make a farm animal distinctive. What key elements set the different types of cows apart from each other? The same goes for sheep, pigs, goats, chickens, horses, etc. Can a pig painting be attractive? How can we add interest to our artwork with texture, brush strokes and color?

We will work on composition and effective use of light and shadow. We will be working from photographs to get anatomy correct. Painting animals can be a very relaxing yet challenging undertaking. So be ready to enjoy our painting time together.
