Oil Painting Workshop
3 Days
– All Skill Levels –
November 6-8, 2012
9am-4pm

“Still Life in Oils”

One of the best things about painting a “Still Life” is that it is so easy to paint from life. One can set up a few objects in a small area and paint directly from life. We see so much more in person compared to what we see in a photograph. Each artist will have their own setup to paint from.

We will work on “seeing” and how to place what we see on our canvas. In the process we will discuss composition, values, edges, light, and the importance each plays in a successful painting. Assorted objects will be available for your arrangements. If you have something you would like to do a painting of, you are encouraged to bring it.
