

Spring Splash with Watercolors

Inspiringly taught by Jo Dunnick

With Spring comes new beginnings. This workshop will give you tools to tackle watercolor (which may seem daunting to some people) and create fresh, unique, one-of-a-kind paintings. The challenge will be for you to let go, get out of the way, let the paints and paper play together, and not worry about the outcome.

We'll use different types of paper and techniques to create "starts," one of which will bring you to a finished painting. All levels are welcome. The only requirement: Be ready to play and explore and enjoy how watercolors can make amazing images.
