

Next Steps in Watercolor

with Katie Stocks

Continue your watercolor work

With lessons in negative painting, color, light and shadow, composition, new techniques and all-new projects in a supportive environment. Class time will involve demonstration, practice, questions, and positive critiques of the work. Beginner and Intermediate level painters are encouraged to have basic skills in brushwork and creating washes. Sign up soon, as this is a popular class.

About the Instructor: Katie Stocks is a retired primary school teacher with grounding in lesson design and planning. In her 2nd career, she has loved teaching watercolor to adults at LCC and Emerald Art Center. Katie values experimentation, questions, and an open mind, along with the practice of being gentle with yourself.
